

Athlete Code of Conduct

Application and Expectations

Athlete members of the Banff Alpine Racers Ski Club (“BAR Athletes”) are required, while participating in Banff Alpine Racers Ski Club (“BAR”) activities, including race competitions, training, camps, dryland, use of club transportation, meetings, social and other club activities (“BAR Activities”), to adhere to this Athlete Code of Conduct. BAR Athletes are also required to adhere to all applicable policies, rules and regulations of the Alberta Alpine Ski Association (“AASA”), including the AASA Code of Conduct and Harassment Policy, as well as all applicable policies, rules and regulations of Alpine Canada Alpin (“ACA”) and the International Ski Federation (“FIS”).

BAR Athletes are considered ambassadors of BAR and the sport of Alpine Ski Racing and are expected to conduct themselves in the highest regard and in a manner that will bring credit to BAR and the Alpine Ski Racing Community. Any failure to comply with the BAR Athlete Code of Conduct, or failure to comply with any applicable policies, rules or regulations of AASA, ACA or FIS, will be reviewable by the Board of Directors’ of BAR in consultation with BAR’s Executive Director and may result in sanction, which can include suspension from BAR Activities or expulsion from BAR without refund of any prior fees or amounts paid.

Code of Conduct

BAR Athletes are expected, when engaged in BAR Activities to:

- Adhere to all applicable policies, rules and regulations of the AASA, including the AASA Code of Conduct and Harassment Policy, as well as all applicable policies, rules and regulations of ACA and FIS.
- Conduct themselves with honesty and integrity and compete/participate in a spirit of fair play and within the rules of Alpine Ski Racing.
- Refrain from using profane, insulting, harassing or otherwise offensive language.
- Refrain from using, promoting or distributing to others, any tobacco products.
- Refrain from using, promoting or distributing to others, any alcohol, illegal drugs or other banned substances.
- Not violate any local, provincial, federal or other applicable law.
- Be courteous to and address fellow athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, event organizers, spectators and others associated with BAR and Alpine Ski Racing in a respectful manner.
- Treat ski area management, ski area staff, hotel staff, sponsors and all others that support the sport of Alpine Ski Racing with courtesy and respect.
- Show self-control and have consideration for and respect other individuals’ dignity; verbal, physical or other behaviours (including cyber-activities) that constitute bullying, harassment or abuse will not be tolerated.
- Show respect for other person’s belongings; vandalism, theft or tampering with other’s equipment and personal belongings will not be tolerated.
- Conduct themselves in a safe manner, abide by the Skiers’ Responsibility Code and ensure the safety of others while on the ski hill.